Tea Tree Gully Gem & Mineral Club News

President's Report

Greetings All,
 Again, not a lot to report this month. We are all familiar with the "on again, off again" COVID lockdowns, but classes are (as at going to print) back to normal, and we are still observing current social distancing rules.
 Classes will break for a short period over Christmas and New Year, but breakup and resumption dates are determined by the individual classes, so may vary.
 One important event this month is the birthday of Doug Walker, our Faceting Instructor and Workshop Manager. Doug turns 90 on the 10th of this month and is showing no signs of slowing down. In fact, he has just bought himself a new car: bright red because he knows they go faster!
 Doug has 20 years membership under his belt, having joined the Club in 2000, and was awarded Life Membership 2 years ago.
 I am sure everyone will join with me in wishing Doug a very 'Happy Birthday', with many more to follow.
 Enjoy your Christmas and New year festivities and stay safe.
 Cheers, Ian

Gary Green Jasper

Gary Green Jasper, also known as "Larsonite", "McDermitt Jasper" or "Green Petrified Bogwood" is a form of petrified wood from a location near McDermitt, Oregon, on the Nevada/Oregon border.

It is believed to be wood that was covered by volcanic activity in the Miocene period between 11-15 million years ago. The volcanic event covered this area in debris that deprived the plants of oxygen, halting the decay process. Minerals from the volcanic ash then acted as the replacement material for this petrification / mineralization, giving the wood its vibrant colours.

Zircon – Birthstone for December

Zircon is an important gemstone which occurs in an array of colours of yellow, champagne, orange, pink, red, brown, blue, and green, as well as colourless.

This gemstone has an extremely high refractive index and stunning dispersion, meaning the colourless variety, as a faceted gem, is often mistaken for Diamond.

It is a natural gemstone, not to be confused with Cubic Zirconia, which is a man-made Diamond simulant.

Zircon’s colour diversity is caused by traces of certain impurities, some of which are radioactive.

These radioactive forms of Zircon must be heated to stabilize them for use as gems. In fact, many of the gem forms of Zircon (even those that are not radioactive) are heat treated to enhance colour and increase transparency, as is done with many other gem varieties. The radioactivity in Zircon gemstones is very minimal and is considered safe, without posing any health hazards.

Due to its radioactive status, Zircon is described by geologists and gemmologists as a ‘transitional’ stone, being known as high, intermediate or low Zircon, depending on the state of radioactive decomposition. For this reason, it shows a wide range of specific gravity – from 3.90 to 4.71, depending on its type.

Rough Zircon can quite easily be identified by its weight (heavy compared to other stones) and Adamantine lustre, even if its crystal shape is not evident.

How Statues Are Fighting Back Part 2

We have all heard about people taking down statues as a part of protests and riots that have been happening recently. Meanwhile the statues around the world have apparently started to fight back.

How the Internet started; according to the Bible

Please do not Google or check this with Snopes. They will lie to you and call this False. Trust ME.

In ancient Israel, it came to pass that a trader by the name of Abraham Com did taketh unto himself a healthy young wife by the name of Dorothy. And Dot Com, as she came to be known, was a comely woman: large of breast, broad of shoulder and long of leg. Indeed, she was often called Amazon Dot Com.

And she said unto Abraham, her husband, "Why dost thou travel so far from town to town with thy goods when thou canst trade without ever leaving thy tent?"

And Abraham did look at her as though she were several saddle bags short of a camel load, but simply said, "How, Dear?"

And Dot replied, "I will place drums in all the towns and drums in between to send messages saying what you have for sale, and they will reply telling you who hath the best price. The sale can be made on the drums and delivery made by Uriah's Pony Stable (UPS)."

Abraham thought long and decided he would let Dot have her way with the drums. And the drums rang out and were an immediate success. Abraham sold all the goods he had at the top price, without ever having to move from his tent.

To prevent neighboring countries from overhearing what the drums were saying, Dot devised a system that only she and the drummers knew. It was known as Must Send Drum Over Sound (MSDOS), and she also developed a language to transmit ideas and pictures - Hebrew to the People (HTTP).

And the young men did take to Dot Com's trading as doth the greedy horsefly take to camel dung. They were called Nomadic Ecclesiastical Rich Dominican Sybarites, or NERDS.

And lo, the land was so feverish with joy at the new riches and the deafening sound of drums that no one noticed that the real riches were going to that enterprising drum dealer, Brother William of Gates, who bought off every drum maker in the land. And indeed, lo he did insist on drums to be made that would work only with Brother Gates' drumheads and drumsticks.

And Dot did say, "Oh, Abraham, what we have started is being taken over by others." And Abraham looked out over the Bay of Ezekiel, or eBay as it came to be known. He said, "We need a name that reflects what we are."

And Dot replied, "Young Ambitious Hebrew Owner Operators." "YAHOO," said Abraham. And because it was Dot's idea, they named it YAHOO Dot Com.

Abraham's cousin, Joshua, being the young Gregarious Energetic Educated Kid (GEEK) that he was, soon started using Dot's drums to locate things around the countryside.

It soon became known as God's Own Official Guide to Locating Everything (GOOGLE).

That is how it all began. And that is the truth.

Amen!

Fottle, Farton and ?ucket

I went to the Patent Office to register some of my inventions.

I went to the main desk to sign in and the lady at the desk had a form that had to be filled out.

She wrote down my personal info and then asked me what I had invented.

I said, "a folding bottle".

She said, "Okay, what do you call it?"

"A Fottle."

"What else do you have."

"I have also invented a folding carton."

Again, she said, "what do you call it?"

"A Farton."

She sniggered and said, "Those are silly names for products and one of them sounds kind of crude."

I was so upset by her comment that I grabbed the form and left the office without even telling her about my folding bucket.

Having a Bad Day

Joe had asked Bob to help him out with the deck after work, so Bob just went straight over to Joe's place. When they got to the door, Joe went straight to his wife, gave her a hug, and told her how beautiful she was and how much he had missed her at work. When it was time for supper, he complimented his wife on her cooking, kissed her and told her how much he loved her.

Once they were working on the deck, Bob told Joe that he was surprised that he fussed so much over his wife. Joe said that he had started this about six months ago, it had revived their marriage, and things could not be better. Bob thought he would give it a go. When he got home, he gave his wife a massive hug, kissed her and told her that he loved her. His wife burst into tears.

Bob was confused and asked why she was crying. She said: "This is the worst day of my life. First, little Billy fell off his bike and twisted his ankle. Then, the washing machine broke and flooded the basement. And now, you come home drunk!"

Learning the Job

A young person in a country town got a job behind the counter at the general store. A lady came in and asked for some rose-scented soap. "I'm sorry," said the new assistant, "we don't have any." The manager saw this and took the shop assistant aside, explaining: "This is a business. We must make sales. If we do not have what a person asks for, suggest an alternative."

This influenced the shop assistant, as a man walked in and asked, "Do you have any toilet rolls?" "I'm sorry, we don't," replied the assistant, "but we have flypaper, sandpaper and confetti".

Hit Me Again

The after-dinner speaker just did not have a stop button. He rambled on and on and on, oblivious to his increasingly restless audience. Finally, one of the more drunken diners hurled an empty wine bottle at him. It missed and hit the Chairman instead.

As the Chairman slid slowly to the floor clutching his head, he was heard to murmur: "Hit me again, I can still hear him."

Sex – Good God!

Housework was a woman's job, but one evening, Jenny arrived home from work to find the children bathed, one load of laundry in the washer and another in the dryer.

Dinner was on the stove, and the table set. She was astonished!

It turns out that Ralph had read an article that said wives who work full-time and had to do their own housework were too tired to have SEX.

The night went well and the next day, she told her office friends all about it. "We had a great dinner. Ralph even cleaned up. He helped the kids do their homework, folded all the laundry, and put it away. I really enjoyed the evening."

"But what about afterwards?" asked her friends. "Oh, that ..., Ralph was too tired..."

God is good.

Managing a Blind Date

After being with his blind date all evening, the man could not take another minute with her.

Earlier, he had secretly arranged to have a friend call him to the phone so he would have an excuse to leave if something like this happened.

When he returned to the table, he lowered his eyes, put on a grim expression and said, "I have some bad news. My grandfather just died."

"Thank heavens," his date replied. "If yours hadn't, mine would have had to!"

Problem Solving

Two older ladies were discussing their husbands over tea.

"I do wish that my George would stop biting his nails. He makes me terribly nervous."

"My Herbert used to do the same thing," the older woman replied. "But I broke him of the habit."

"How?"

"I hid his teeth."

The Australian Male Sense of Humour

The missus is not talking to me. She said I ruined her birthday. I am not sure how...I did not even know it was her birthday!

After too many beers, my mate asked if he could crash out on my sofa. I had to explain to him that I am married now, so that is where I sleep.

Woman to husband: "Let us go out and have some fun tonight!" Husband: "Okay, but if you get home before I do, leave the hall light on."

My missus left a note on the fridge: "It is not working. I cannot take it anymore; I am going to live with my mum." I opened the fridge door, the light came on, the beer was cold. What the hell is she on about?"

Statue of Limitations

A Russian Jew was finally allowed to emigrate to Israel.

At Moscow airport, customs found a Lenin statue in his baggage and asked, "What is this?" The man replied, "What is this? Wrong question comrade. You should have asked: Who is he? This is Comrade Lenin. He laid the foundations of socialism and created the future and prosperity of the Russian people. I am taking it with me as a memory of our dear hero."

The Russian customs officer let him go without further inspection.

At Tel Aviv airport, the Israeli customs officer also asked our friend, "What is this?"

He replied, "What is this? Wrong question, Sir. You should be asking, 'Who is this?' This is Lenin, the bastard who caused me, a Jew, to leave Russia. I take this statue with me so I can curse him every day."

The Israeli customs officer said, "I apologize, Sir, you are cleared to go."

Settling into his new house, he put the statue on a table. To celebrate his immigration, he invited his friends and relatives to dinner.

One of his friends asked, "Who is this?"

He replied, "My dear friend, 'Who is this?' is a wrong question. You should have asked, 'What is this?'"

He added, 'This is ten kilograms of solid gold that I managed to bring with me without paying any customs duty and tax.'

Christmas Dinner - Patterson's Butchers, Sheffield.

I have concluded that the inevitable stress of Christmas dinner is created by adverts, supermarkets, and TV chefs. It is a Sunday dinner for goodness sake! We do it quite happily 51 weeks of the year but can we the consumers be trusted to manage by ourselves on one day of the year...apparently not! Here goes...

1. Turkey... It is a big fucking chicken that's all, 20 minutes per lb plus 20 minutes at 180 degrees - jobs a good un! Get yourselves a meat thermometer £3 off the Internet poke it in the offending bird if it says 75 degrees or over its cooked!

2. Stuffing - regardless of what Jamie Oliver says you do NOT need 2lbs of shoulder of pork, onions breadcrumbs, pine nuts and a shit load of fresh herbs to make stuffing...( no fucking wonder he's bankrupt if that's what he spends to make stuffing!)

What you need is a box of stuffing mix and a kettle! If you wanna liven it up squeeze 3 sausages out of their skins and mix that in with it before cooking.

3. Gravy - Jamie Oliver is copping for this one as well...

Gravox Jamie....All you need is Gravox!

I ( nor any other woman I know) has got time on Christmas Eve to piss about roasting chicken wings and vegetables, adding stock and flour, cooking it for another half hour, mashing it all up with a potato masher and then straining the whole sorry mess to make gravy.

4. Vegetables...Never mind faffing around shredding sprouts and frying them with bacon and chestnuts to make them more palatable...If you do not like them do not buy and cook the fucking things! If your family only eats frozen peas, then that is good enough!

5. Roast potatoes...Yes, I par boil mine then roast them in goose fat. Aunt Bessie also does the same.

6. Trimmings /Christmas pudding and the like...Aldi or Lid!

(oh and while we're on the subject of pudding- if birds custard is what your family likes on the wretched thing then that's fine - you do not need brandy butter /rum sauce etc or anything else that costs a fucking fortune and takes 2 hours to make!)

7. Family....

Children...Feed the little blighters first, if they only want turkey with tomato sauce - fine leave em to it, it does not matter. Once they are fed bugger them off to play with their Christmas presents so that YOU can enjoy your dinner in Peace!

Adults...Anyone that can manage to get their sorry arse to your dinner table is also capable of helping to serve up/ sort the kids out/ clear the table /wash up /dry up etc.

And Finally...

NO ONE...And I mean no one APART FROM THE COOK IS ALLOWED TO GET PISSED AND FALL ASLEEP BEFORE THE WASHING UP IS DONE!

Does anyone know anyone called Leon out there who could use these? I ordered them from Amazon but they were supposed to have spelt Noel. 😞
